

Dave has lived and worked in NH his entire life and comes from a large family of 10. He currently resides in Auburn, NH with his wife and three children. Dave has always been interested in the environment and loves to camp and hike. Favorite past times are fishing, gardening and raising homing pigeons/white doves.