

I am a New Hampshire native: born in Concord and lived in the greater Concord area my whole life. I live in a rural area of a small town on 18 acres that is mostly wooded but has a small field. I enjoy working outdoors at home (cutting brush and cordwood) and at my job as a field engineer since 1977. I especially enjoy family time and helping others.

